

We are pleased to be collaborating with the Norfolk School Leaders' Association to bring you the Norfolk School Leaders' Conference in 2026. Join fellow leaders and governors on Thursday 12th November at Carrow Road, Norwich, to explore themes around resilience in leadership, executive leadership and wellbeing.

Nicola S. Morgan – drawing from her solo English Channel swim, award-winning speaker and highly experienced school leader, Nicola delivers a powerful keynote on resilience. School leaders will gain four actionable strategies: reframing failure, pivoting past obstacles, resetting rigid mindsets, and using laser-sharp focus to lead with clarity, courage, and calm under immense pressure.

Paul K. Ainsworth – experienced education executive and author Paul K. Ainsworth guides leaders through the turbulent transition into executive headship. Deconstructing his "nine steps to executive leadership" through real-world MAT anecdotes, this keynote equips newly appointed executives with the mindset, strategic vision, and practical tools needed to thrive at the executive level.
