

How to Lead Primary Writing Effectively – Thursday 8 February 2024, 9.00am - 4.00pm, The Kings Centre, Norwich

Are you or one of your colleagues new to leading writing in your school? We know that writing has been a challenging area for Norfolk, and we are committed to rising to the challenge of improvement. This course will provide you with the knowledge to lead writing effectively, leaving you to return to school with the confidence to coach and lead your team. This event will be held in person at The Kings Centre and costs £190+VAT or 3 credits per person.

Read more and book: How to Lead Primary Writing Effectively

Effective Confrontation – First session Tuesday 6 February 2024, 9.15am - 4.00pm

Participants will leave the course with an enhanced set of skills and strategies to manage effective confrontation, impacting on improving and maintaining good relationships in the workplace. Feedback from this course consistently reflects a significant impact on leadership and the culture in a school/setting, as well as a positive impact both professionally and personally. This event is in person at Centrum, Norwich Research Park and costs £350+VAT or 6 credits per person.

Read more and book: Effective Confrontation

Governor Forum – Tuesday 6 February 2024, 5.00pm - 6.00pm

Please invite your governors to our spring forum, this term we'll be joined by no less than three separate speakers! Kate Atkins will be discussing the role of the Teaching School Hub, alongside the provision of NPQs, ECTS and ITT. Jo Thompson will be covering Sports Premium and how to maximise the benefit for children, and finally Keeley White will give a short talk on what the Virtual School is and supporting Looked After Children. This is a virtual event and is free to all members.

Read more and book: Governor Forum – Spring

Geography Deep Dive – Tuesday 13 February 2024, 4.00pm - 5.30pm

This session will provide support around Deep Dive elements of the current Ofsted inspection, explaining the requirements and providing guidance on how schools can effectively prepare for inspection in terms of establishing an ambitious intent, ensuring high quality implementation and measuring impact across your geography provision. The session will be informed by the recent Ofsted report for geography, 'Getting our bearings', which clearly lays out how well schools are meeting Ofsted standards and which areas in particular schools are falling short. This event is virtual and free to all members.

Read more and book: Geography Deep Dive