

Governor Forum – Tuesday 6 February 2024, 5.00pm - 6.00pm

The governor forum is a safe space to get to know fellow governors and share queries and problems. This spring we will be joined by three speakers who will each impart their knowledge on the following topics:

Kate Atkins, Acting Deputy Director at the Julian Teaching School Hub will join us to discuss:

- The role of the TSH and what they offer to schools
- Provision of NPQs, ECTs and ITT.

Jo Thompson, Ex-Education Development Officer at Active Norfolk will be covering Sports Premium for Governors, including:

- Maximising benefits for children
- Measuring impact.

Keeley White, Lead Advisor, Inclusion and Executive Head from the Norfolk Virtual School to talk about:

- What the Virtual school is and their role in Norfolk's Schools
- Supporting Looked After Children.

Read more and book: Governor Forum – Spring