Getting Formative Assessment Right – Tuesday 23 April – 4.00pm - 5.30pm

Providing effective feedback in the moment is crucial for pupil progress, but how can teachers make it effective without impacting their workload?

This online session, delivered by Emma Adcock, will discuss how to build formative assessment strategies into learning sequences to check that knowledge is retained in the long-term memory. She will also explore ways in which retrieval practice as part of formative assessment can be effectively used as part of the school's approach to maintaining a high-quality education. This event is virtual and costs £80+VAT or 1 credit per person.

Basic Coaching – By popular demand we are running another cohort!First session, Thursday 2 May, 9.00am - 11.00am

This course will teach you how to become a certified coach using the BASIC method. It is a powerful way to structure coaching conversations and to develop the clarity you need to coach with confidence. (The BASIC method was developed by Andy Buck, author of Leadership Matters, and is the preferred method of coaching for some of the latest National Professional Qualification providers.) The five face-to-face sessions teach the techniques and give opportunities to practice the skills. Delegates tell us that they have found the sessions practical, insightful and powerful enough to change their practice right from the outset.

This series is held in person at Centrum, Norwich Research Park and costs £275+VAT or 3 credits per person.
